

KALEIDOSKOP 2022

CIVIL SOCIETY ON THE MOVE

TRAINING OFFERS IN NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER

In this year's Kaleidoskop 2022 project, TBB is offering free training for those interested in Kaleidoskop funding for their own projects.

In 2023, small (up to €3,000) and medium-sized (up to €10,000) projects involving voluntary work and concerning migration/refugees are to be funded again within the framework of Kaleidoskop. TBB offers two training courses to prepare interested initiatives, associations and individuals for submitting applications:

11/25/2022, 1pm

Kaleidoscope 2023: General conditions and requirements for project funding

Content:

- Kaleidoscope project funding: goals and opportunities
- Requirements for project funding
- Successfully integration of volunteer work into projects
- Financing options, time and legal framework
- Target groups & goal achievement
- Examples from kaleidoscope practice
- Application and project selection
- Overview of project implementation and accounting

12/15/2022, 1pm

Project planning, execution and accounting in Kaleidoskop 2023

Content:

- Overview of the Kaleidoscope funding program
- From idea to creating a project
- Formulate goals, measurements, define indicators
- Successful project implementation
- Preparation of reports and where-used list
- What is necessary, what is important and what is forbidden?
- Dealing with changes in the current project

The training courses will take place in the TBB (Oranienstr. 53 / 10969 Berlin).

The number of participants is limited, so we ask kindly to register as soon as possible.

On the other dates, the training courses are also held in German.

To register or if you have any questions, please send an email to kaleidoskop@tbb-berlin.de

Die Beauftragte des Senats für Integration und Migration

Senatsverwaltung für
Integration, Arbeit und Soziales

BERLIN

